

Turnagain Community Arts Alliance

4105 Turnagain Blvd. E Suite L Anchorage, Alaska 245-7311

You are cordially invited to become a member of Turnagain Community Arts Alliance. We are a non-profit association of artists and instructors committed to the encouragement of a thriving arts community in Alaska, and supports that commitment by providing a network of support of artists and arts educators, and providing lifelong learning opportunities for children and adults. TCAA Believes access to arts opportunities for artists, educators, students and the general public enhances quality of life.

Individuals and business are invited for membership based on a commitment to excellence in music, arts and education. TCAA provides members with a list of all members and releases a yearly publication featuring member services and is available to the public. Members are also entitled to early notification and registration for all TCAA sponsored events.
